LEADER GUIDE

Spend time in prayer before each study session and pray for each participant. This guide follows the each chapter in order, but this book can be studied in any order. (Leaders may want to change the order shown below to cover the One-Year Bible Reading chapter in the first session, so that participants will be set with a daily Bible-reading plan during the course of this study.)

CHAPTER 1: FAVORITE BIBLE VERSES
Main Idea
The Bible is God’s Word to us and reveals God’s character, our salvation in Christ, and how God wants us to live. These key verses give us practical principles for making decisions.

Teaching Tips
Introduce participants to the purposes of this study. Ask them what they hope to gain from the study or why they joined the study.
This chapter has three sections: (1) Words of comfort and strength; (2) God and our salvation; and (3) Topics in Christian living. Depending on the make-up of the group, participants may need to spend more time on one section than another. Arrange class time to meet their needs.

Digging Deeper
For more on understanding what Scripture teaches about the Trinity, see The Trinity pamphlet available at www.rose-publishing.com. It covers a simple explanation of the Trinity along with answers to common misunderstandings.

Worksheet Key
(1) forgive  (2) daily bread  (3) righteousness  (4) tempted  (5) understanding  (6) Spirit  (7) hope  (8) gain  (9) spirit  (10) answer
CHAPTER 2: PEOPLE OF THE BIBLE

Main Idea
The people of the Bible were used by God for his will and his plan of redemption to be fulfilled.

Teaching Tips
As a group, do this brainstorming exercise together: Ask participants, What adjectives would you use to describe the prophets of the Bible? The priests? Women? Kings? Disciples? Early Christians? Use a whiteboard or easel pad to write down responses. Have participants identify similarities and differences they notice among the descriptions of the categories of people.

Digging Deeper

Game Key
To add some fun to the session, try this game: If the group is large break them into teams. Draw a Jeopardy® board on a whiteboard or easel pad and mark off the boxes as participants choose them. Have someone keep track of points and decide who “buzzes” in (or raises their hand) first to answer. And don’t forget to remind participants to answer in the form of a question. Add more Q&A to the following board and rearrange as desired.

CHAPTER 3: 100 PRAYERS IN THE BIBLE

Main Idea
Prayers in the Bible show us that prayers to God can come in a variety of forms and express our sorrows, joys, requests, confessions, thanksgivings, frustrations, and questions.

Teaching Tips
This chapter is about prayer, so leave enough time for praying together. Depending on their comfort level, ask participants to share prayer requests and praises that the group can pray about together.
Since all 100 prayers cannot be discussed in one session, choose 8 to 10 prayers to focus on. Cover both the circumstances surrounding the prayer and how God responded to the prayer. Select prayers that demonstrate the variety of prayers in the Bible.

Digging Deeper

Worksheet
Not all participants may be comfortable sharing their prayers. Encourage them to share, but do not pressure them or put them on the spot. There are seven types of prayer on the worksheet. Ask participants to pray through them during the next week.

CHAPTER 4: KEY BIBLE STORIES

Main Idea
The stories of the Bible reveal God’s plan to redeem his fallen creation.

Teaching Tips
At the beginning of the session have participants write their own personal story about their spiritual journey or a point in their life when they realized God was important to them. Then, at the end of the session revisit their stories and ask participants to share. Ask participants: How did God work in your own story?
Select 4 to 5 Bible stories to focus the teaching time on. Be sure to cover these things: (1) The setting or background; (2) the characters and how they interact; (3) the plot (introduction, conflict, climax, resolution). The central question to answer for each story is, How did God work in this story?

Digging Deeper
To provide some background on the characters in the stories see a people of the Bible encyclopedia, for example, Baker Encyclopedia of Bible People (Baker: 2006).

Worksheet Key
(1) Abraham/Abram (2) Egypt (3) Joshua (4) Saul (5) Elijah (6) Isaiah (7) Nineveh (8) Cana
(9) Peter (10) Damascus
CHAPTER 5: 100 PROPHECIES FULFILLED BY JESUS

Main Idea
Jesus fulfilled the prophecies God gave to his people concerning the Messiah. Jesus is the Savior of all people, for all time.

Teaching Tips
This chapter contains more information than can be covered in a typical session, so pick 10 to 15 prophecies on which to focus the teaching time.

Get participants involved by having them read aloud the verses of prophecy and fulfillment from their Bibles. (Be sure to have a few extra Bibles on hand for participants who didn’t bring a Bible.) Split participants into two groups. Assign one group the Old Testament prophetic verses and the other group the corresponding New Testament fulfillment verses.

Digging Deeper
Another way to see how the Old Testament points to Jesus is through typology. For easy-to-understand typology charts, see Christ in the Old Testament pamphlet available at www.rose-publishing.com.

Worksheet Key
Because there are many Scriptures to look up on the worksheet, have participants work in groups to complete the worksheet.
(1) h (2) j (3) a (4) i (5) b (6) f (7) g (8) c (9) d (10) e

CHAPTER 6: GOSPELS SIDE BY SIDE

Main Idea
The Gospels’ four points of view arrive at one conclusion: Jesus is not a mere man; he is the Son of God.

Teaching Tips
If participants are new believers or seekers, first give an overview of the life of Jesus. Explain why he came and what his death and resurrection mean for us today. Connect these ideas as you teach through the four Gospels.

Make a transparency or copy and laminate the page of the map “Israel During Jesus’ Time.” Using a wet-erase marker, track Jesus’ travels to show how often Jesus traveled and in which areas he preached and performed miracles.

CHAPTER 7: ONE-YEAR BIBLE READING PLAN

Main Idea
Reading the Bible is an important part of the Christian life—it’s the believer’s life-line to knowing what God wants believers to do.

Teaching Tips
Allow plenty of time for participants to share their experiences of Bible reading. If participants have already begun the Bible reading plan ask them to share the struggles and joys of reading the Bible each day according to a plan.

Encourage participants to look for these things as they read:
(1) Lessons to be learned, (2) commands to follow, (3) attitudes to avoid, and (4) characteristics to adopt.

With busy lives and many distractions it may be difficult for participants to keep on track. Encourage them each session to keep up to date with their reading. If a participant is having particular difficulty ask them how you can help. If they’re aren’t sure, suggest an accountability partner, or help them designate a time during the day they can set aside to read, or suggest that they put reminders in place such as on a calendar or PDA.

CHAPTER 8: BIBLE PROMISES

Main Idea
The Lord wants us to know he cares for us. We can trust in God’s faithfulness to his promises when we need hope and courage.

Teaching Tips
Because some of the discussion questions are more personal than others, be sure to select questions appropriate for the level of sharing that participants are comfortable with. Pick five questions to cover.

(There are discussion questions, but no worksheet for this chapter.)

FEEDBACK
To improve future studies, be sure to get feedback from the group about teaching style, meeting location, discussion time, material covered, length of study, and group size. Choose a method that best suits your group: Anonymous evaluation sheet, e-mail response or questionnaire, open discussion. (See the feedback questions at the end of the study guide.)

Note: The inclusion of a work or website does not necessarily mean endorsement of all its contents or of other works by the same author(s).

STUDY GUIDE

The study guide begins on the next page and includes, for each chapter, a reproducible worksheet and/or questions for group discussion or personal reflection.
