Noah and the Ark

Memory Verse

Bring a pair of every kind of animal—a male and a female—into the boat with you to keep them alive during the flood. Genesis 6:19

God's Rainbow Promise (Genesis 6:8–8:22)

God told Noah to build a big boat called an ark. God told him to take his family and a pair of every kind of animal into the ark. God wanted to protect them from a great flood that would kill all the other people and animals. When the flood was over, Noah, his family, and the animals came out. God put a rainbow in the sky and promised he would never again kill all living things with a flood.

Too Many Sheep

Abram Made Peace with Lot (Genesis 13:1-12,14,18)

Abram, his wife, and his nephew Lot moved to a land called Canaan. Abram and Lot had flocks and herds of animals. The land couldn't feed all of the animals, so the workers began fighting over the land. To keep the peace, Abram decided to divide the land. Abram gave Lot the first choice of which land he wanted. Lot chose the land he thought was the best. God was pleased with Abram for keeping the peace.

Miriam

The LORD is my light and my salvation. Psalm 27:1

The Little Baby (Exodus 1—2:9)

Miriam had a new baby brother. She loved her baby brother very much, but he was in danger. Pharaoh wanted to kill all the Israelite baby boys. To keep her baby brother safe, Miriam and her mother placed the baby in a basket and sent it down the river. Miriam followed the basket. When the Pharaoh's daughter found the baby, Miriam suggested her mother help care for the child. God protected this special baby boy.
